

Module 3: Activities—TEMPLATES

1. Decide on how many events you will do during the school year. You can start with one, the first time you try this activity and increase the number as needed.
2. Choose the focus of your event. Here are a few ideas.

1) Reader's theater	15) Reading night--students bring favorite book, invite a well known author, hold a read aloud, etc.
2) Speech contest	16) Haunted House
3) Poetry recitation	17) Book sale--used or new books
4) Multi-cultural night	18) Movie night
5) Food bazaar	19) Science Fair
6) School fundraiser	20) Author's Fair--writing contests, invite a well-known author, etc.,
7) Star gazing	21) Technology night ~ Internet safety, useful education websites, using Word, etc., 22) silent or live auction
8) Local field trip	23) Bowling night
9) Family night	24) Art show
10) Spaghetti (or other) dinner hosted by teachers and students and invite families	25) Community service
11) Bingo night	26) _____ theme suggested by students
12) Field day	27) _____ theme suggested by families
13) Sports day	28) _____ theme suggested by colleagues
14) Outdoor picnic or BBQ	29) _____ theme found via an Internet search

*Get suggestions for events from students and parents!

3. Organize and plan your event. Gather the help of families, community volunteers, and colleagues.
4. Send flyers out and have families RSVP, as appropriate.
5. Provide some healthy snacks if possible.
6. Remind students and families of the event.
7. Have fun and remember to take pictures and request feedback from the audience.